MUCH WORK

Before Central Committee of the Catholic Knights of America.

Must Make Preparation For Entertainment of State Council.

Ritual Committee Will Make Its Final Report at Next Meeting.

BRANCHES MAKE FAVORABLE REPORTS

The Central Committee of the Catholic Knights of America met in regular monthly session last Friday night in St. Mary's Hall, and soon after William T. Meehan had installed the officers it became apparent that there was much work before them that would continue to the end of their term. First John J. Seore called the committee's attention to the fact that the next State convention would be held in Louisville. Arrangements will have to be made for the proper entertainment of the State officers, delegates and visitors, and he thought the Central Committee should not delay much longer before taking care of this matter. The convention, it is thought, will be the largest the Catholic Knights have yet held in Kentucky and may continue for several days. Banquets, rides and other forms of entertainment will be provided, and it is now time that the various branches should be visited and asked to help defray the expense that must be incurred.

President Joseph P. McGinn was presented with a surprise souvenir by William Cushing, which was later divided among the delegates. For the special committee on ritual William T. Meehan reported that the members were making satisfactory progress and would have everything in readiness for an exemplification at the next meeting. Bernard A. Kruse, upon behalf of Branch 642, invited the delegates to a housewarming to be given by that branch in its new quarters at Campbell and Broadway on Tuesday, January 22.

Several branches reported gains in membership with St. Michael's in the lead, and the officers were commended for the splendid showing they are making. A number of new delegates were received as members of the committee, but as many branches could not be heard from until the latter part of this month President McGinn announced that the committees to be appointed would not be named before the February meeting.

Police Commissioner Murphy, representing the Jeffersonville Knights, and Capt. Gus Kane, of the Uniforms Rank, hinted that there was "something doing" and that there will be an unexpected showing upon the occasion of the next regular meeting. They want to inaugurate a movement that will enable the two companies, the band and the Knights of Louisville to visit Cincinnati when the Supreme Council meets there next May. Their suggestion was endorsed by Delegate Harry Veeneman, who expressed the hope that Kentucky would make a better showing than either Ohio or Indiana, both of which are already preparing for that event.

United with the uniformed companies and branches of Covington, Newport, Bellevue and other Kentucky towns there is no reason why this State should not carry off the honors.

Anthony J. Sheridan, representing Branch 4, who has been prominent in the order for many years, was called upon and responded with one of the best talks that has been heard recently at any meeting of Catholic Knights. The order was never before in better condition, he said, and reports from all sections of the country showed an awakened interest and restoration of confidence. But notwithstanding the bright outlook for the future all will depend upon the interest the individual members take and their attendance at meetings. The reputation and standing of the officers were of the highest and would draw strength from all quarters, and with these facts before them every man and woman in the order should do something for its advancement.

Other delegates told of the plans made by their branches, and President Meehan invited the committee to visit St. John's branch Monday night, when a smoker would be given the men of the parish in the school hall. He also stated that Branch 23 had within the past few months secured ten new members, which they looked upon only as a start in the campaign they will conduct during the coming year.

As soon as the Membership Committee is organized a series of visits to all the branches in the Falls Cities will be organized and there will be a return to the old-time fraternal spirit that existed prior to the rating. It was with much regret that it was learned that Col. Michael Heuer could not be present, being still confined to his home as the result of injuries sustained nearly two months ago.

DUBLIN CASTLE.

Lady Aberdeen, determined to signalize her reign in Dublin Castle by doing all she can for Irish industries, is to give a wonderful Irish lace ball this month. The dresses of the ladies are to be, as far as possible, of Irish manufacture, and this will certainly be no hardship in view of the beautiful Irish poplins and other fabrics now manufactured, while Irish lace of crocheted is to be predominant. The gentlemen are to appear in court dress with ruffles and jabots entirely of Irish lace. The dances will include Irish jigs and reels, old-fashioned step dances and several quadrilles in which the dancers will all wear lace of the same make. Thus there will be a Corker-macross quadrille, a Linenreel, an old point and other quadrilles.

SUDDENLY STRICKEN.

Death of Mrs. Charles J. Finegan Shocks Entire Community.

It is with feelings of the deepest regret that we have to record this week the sudden and unexpected death of Mrs. Bettie Finegan, beloved wife of Charles J. Finegan, the well known West End grocer, which sad event took place at the family residence on Nineteenth street last Saturday night. Mrs. Finegan had been ill since December 24, but was thought to be recovering, as she was able to be up and receive her friends. Near midnight she was stricken with heart failure and expired before the physician could reach the house, making the third death within her family within a year. Deceased had been in robust health up to her illness and enjoyed the confidence and well wishes of all who knew her, and by her gentle manner, liberal spirit and cheerful disposition had made for herself a wide circle of friends and no enemies. In every way she was extremely generous, and her charity to the poor and needy was certainly unbounded. For many years Mrs. Finegan was the soprano soloist in the choir of St. Patrick's church and was always active in the charitable work of that parish. Considering that she was a young woman it was generally expected her illness would be of short duration, but despite all that medical skill could do, coupled with the kind and gentle nursing of kind and affectionate relatives and while apparently on the road to recovery, the sudden change came and to the great grief of her devoted husband and a large circle of relatives and friends she passed peacefully away. Sunday and Monday nights the house was thronged with those who came to express sympathy and pay respect to the memory of the dead, the St. Vincent de Paul Society of St. Patrick's and Division 1, A. O. H. appearing in a body. The funeral Tuesday morning was largely attended and bore ample testimony to the respect and esteem in which the deceased was held. Major General Crook officiated at the solemn high mass of requiem and in feeling manner paid high tribute to the Christian life and worth of her whose death they mourned.

Besides the bereaved husband the aged mother and two sisters, Mrs. John Ryan and Mary Lincoln, three brothers, William, Pierce and Dennis Lincoln, yet survive, and to them we tender our heartfelt sympathy.

PLEASED WITH LECTURE.

Great Audience Heard Lecture of Dr. Doherty Tuesday Night.

The announcement that Dr. William B. Doherty would lecture Tuesday night before the members of Mackin Council brought out an audience that thronged the club house, the doors having to be content with standing room. Dr. Doherty was received with enthusiastic applause, and for an hour and a half he drove home truth after truth that applied to men's lives from boyhood up, and left an impression on the minds of his hearers that will not be soon forgotten. In conclusion the Doctor expressed himself proud of Mackin Council and its achievements and pleased with the evidences on all sides that the members had the best interests of the young men at heart. In expressing appreciation of the lecture it was unanimously voted to invite Dr. Doherty to again address the council in the near future.

Dr. Phil G. Heuer was a welcome visitor, and in a happy talk exteded Mackin Council an invitation to visit Trinity in a body, which was accepted. The members will meet at the club house and several hundred will be expected to make the trip.

President Sam Meehan, Charles S. Brady, Chairman for Mackin's body, the bazaar to be given for St. Cecilia's church after Easter, and all members of the council residing in that parish will constitute a committee to assist him. The applications of Newton G. Rogers and John Clifford were referred to the Membership Committee and they will be elected in time for the next bi-lateral.

Thursday, February 7, was set as the time for the annual eucrhe and reception, the arrangements for which will be made by Messrs. John T. Kenney, Thomas Fullam, Frank Lamahan, Will O'Toole, Charles Lehman, John Stewart and George Keiffer. They will prepare for an evening of real enjoyment and the distribution of many prizes. Much other business was transacted and the meeting did not adjourn until a late hour.

pursue it openly and take all the responsibility."

In conclusion the Pope appealed to history, which, he said, will recognize that the Papacy acted as it did because it did not wish to oppose any form of government, but defend with all its strength the work of the divine founder of the church. The papacy wished to remind the world that "Man must concern himself with higher ideals than the occurrences of everyday life, and that the supreme, inviolable joy of the human soul on earth is to accomplish his spiritual duty at all costs, and thus, in spite of all honor, serve and love God."

the next meeting and members of all societies affiliated with the Federation will be asked to attend and hear the Rev. Father Charles P. Raffo, who has been asked to deliver the address on that occasion. Thomas Feely and Magistrate Sullivan were appointed a special committee to see him and will make all the necessary arrangements. Father Raffo has kept in touch with the Archbishops, Bishops, priests and many distinguished men prominent in the federation movement, and doubtless the meeting place will be taxed to hold those who will want to hear him.

The local Federation has begun the new year well indeed, and if the members continue the interest displayed last week the results will be gratifying to all our citizens.

HIBERNIANS WILL CELEBRATE IN HONOR OF ERIN'S PATRON SAINT.

Notwithstanding the bad weather there was an enthusiastic gathering of Jeffersonville Hibernians in Pfau's Hall Tuesday night to witness the installation of officers and take steps for the celebration of St. Patrick's day. Michael Kinney, the retiring County President, installed the officers with a brief address, after which Louis Constantine reported that the Literary Committee was arranging for a celebration on Monday, March 18, that would equal any ever held in the Falls Cities, the full programme of which would be ready at the next meeting.

John Kennedy presided and made a fine impression. The reports of the outgoing officers showed the division in splendid condition with a membership of 125, mostly all young men. A pleasant feature was the presentation, by Barney Coyle, of a handsome gavel, decorated in the American and Irish colors, to President Kennedy, who promised to wield it with the utmost fairness. He then announced the appointment of the following standing committees:

Sick—Louis Constantine, John E. Murphy, Michael Kinney, Thomas Ahern, Barney Coyle.

Finance—John B. Murphy, Jr., Dennis Ahern, Barney Coyle.

Standing—John E. Murphy, Sr., Barney Coll, Redmond Stanton, Mike Garrity, John Flaherty, John B. Kinney.

Joseph P. McGinn and Joseph L. Lenihan, President and Treasurer of Division 4, of Louisville, and the representative of the Kentucky Irish American were among the visitors and were most cordially received.

President McGinn was at a loss to find words to express his surprise and delight at what he saw and heard at this meeting, not having had any idea of the great progress the division had made during the year. After congratulating the members he invited them all and their lady friends to attend the complimentary eucrhe to be given Wednesday night by Division 4.

Treasurer Lenihan was both eloquent and witty and his reference to his President evoked much laughter. He had listened attentively to the reports read, and the record spoke well for Jeffersonville. Throwing a bouquet at the young men he urged them to be on hand Wednesday night, when he would see that each had a handsome and dashing lady partner for the evening. His allusions to the Kentucky Irish American, for which he would throw aside any paper published, were applauded.

An invitation was also extended the division to attend in a body the initiation to be held tomorrow afternoon in the Hopkins Theater building.

AMERICAN STUDENTS.

Pope Plus Praises Them For Success They Have Attained.

Pope Plus last Sunday received the students of the American College in Rome, who were presented by Mgr. Kennedy, Rector of the college. Monseigneur Kennedy said the American students were more numerous than those of any other nationality, attending institutions of learning in Rome, there being 120 at the College. Pope Plus, after praising the students for the success they have attained in their studies, spoke to them about France, saying: "In the war that is being waged between the clergy and hell, the expressions of unity and sympathy from Catholics throughout the world are the greatest consolation. America especially has distinguished herself in this way; indeed America is a credit to us.

When you return to your glorious country follow with the clergy and the people this luminous example of solidarity in the tremendous conflict against the church."

MEETING OF PROTEST.

A monster mass meeting of Catholics of New York and Brooklyn will be held next Sunday evening, January 27, at the Hippodrome Theater in New York, to protest against the cruel treatment which is now being accorded the Catholics of France by the French Government. The meeting will be held under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus of Greater New York, and several Congressmen and other men of note will address the assemblage.

BEST EVER.

Ancient Order of Hibernians Is Rising on a Wave of Prosperity.

Initiation Tomorrow Will Mark Another Important Mile Post.

All Arrangements Complete For Lecture of Editor P. J. Haltigan.

DEGREE WORK TO BE IMPRESSIVE

The members of every division of the Ancient Order of Hibernians are out hustling for new members, and at the present ratio of increase Louisville will nearly double its membership before the national convention that will be held at Indianapolis in 1908. Tomorrow afternoon the first initiation of the new year will take place in Hibernal Hall in the Hopkins Theater building when the degrees will be conferred on a large class. For this occasion special preparation has been made, with the view of marking another mile post in the history of the order in this city. Each of the four local divisions has many candidates awaiting initiation, and to these and every member notice has been sent requesting their presence tomorrow afternoon. It is expected that the State President and the entire County Board will be in attendance to witness the exemplification and lend encouragement to the movement for the upbuilding of the grand old order.

Speaking of the past history of the organization in Kentucky and old-time member said this week to the Kentucky Irish American: "The Ancient Order of Hibernians is the best society ever organized for Catholic Irishmen, and the younger men are now realizing this in all sections of the country, and it is gratifying to note that our local divisions, realizing this fact, are leaving nothing undone to secure men to join that will be a credit to our organization. Our grand old order is rising on a wave of prosperity never equalled by any similar society, and its mission of preserving the spirit of Irish nationality in the true patriotic sense is appealing at the present time to the young men of our race, and creed as never before. They realize that in order to secure respect and equality our people must be united, and the one society capable of this work is the Ancient Order of Hibernians. 'Unity, Friendship and True Christian Charity,' our motto, is broad and Catholic in spirit, and under its inspiring sentiments exist a true brotherhood of Catholic Irishmen, true to the land of their adoption and loving the land that is awaiting the day when Robert Emmett's epitaph may be written."

In no section of the country is there more interest taken in Hibernianism than in the Falls Cities at the present time. Jeffersonville only two weeks ago had a successful initiation, which will be repeated here tomorrow. Louisville has two flourishing divisions of the Ladies' Auxiliary, and next Wednesday evening the entire membership will be entertained at a complimentary eucrhe by Division 4, when handsome prizes will be awarded and nothing left undone that would contribute to the enjoyment of the occasion. Then will follow the grand illustrated lecture by Patrick J. Haltigan, editor of the National Hibernian, at Macaulay's Theater on Sunday evening, February 17, under the auspices of Division 1. This lecture will be on "Irishmen in the American Revolution and Their Early Influence in the Colonies" and will be interspersed with patriotic Irish and American songs. Editor Haltigan has been everywhere greeted with large and appreciative audiences, and the verdict passed may be summed up in the words of the Rev. Patrick Quill, S. J., professor at Germantown University, Washington, D. C., who says: "Only one word, and that word is admirable. Your lecture was first class. I am not trusting my own judgment. Father Fink, Father McCarthy and Father Bile were delighted. The more you repeat it the better it will be, even your first essay was just splendid. Your musical interludes were very appropriate."

Soon the new County Board will be organized and then a final decision will be arrived at as to the manner in which the anniversary of Ireland's patron saint will be observed. Of course all the members will approach holy communion St. Patrick's day, but they will also want a public celebration in keeping with the occasion.

APPOINTED ASSISTANT.

Enrique W. Cimilahan, a veteran of the Forty-fourth New York Infantry, but for many years a well known resident of New Albany, was last week appointed Assistant Superintendent of the National Soldiers Cemetery at Beaufort, N. C. He left Saturday to enter upon the duties of his new position, followed by the best wishes of all who knew him.

PRESIDENT NEWTON G. ROGERS.

awakening interest in the work of this representative Catholic body. Not only was the attendance of delegates larger than for many months past, but Secretary John Crotty announced the affiliation of additional bodies. Resolutions on the French situation were provided for and will be reported at the next meeting, when the Federation will give emphatic declaration of its position as regards the persecution of the Church now going on in France. The reports submitted showed the standing of the organization and the societies sending delegates, and upon the whole was very satisfactory.

President—Newton G. Rogers. Vice Presidents—Clarence H. Zook, Dr. B. J. Laumers and Margaret Foley.

Secretary—John J. Crotty.

Treasurer—Louis F. Steiner.

Executive Committee—Charles S. Radly, Edward Keltz, William J. Norton, Miss Mary Sheridan, C. F. Przykucki and William Weitenauer.

In accepting the Presidency Mr. Rogers said that he did so with the understanding that each delegate present was for him as they alone were responsible for him being placed in the position. Under his administration it would be the purpose to have the Federation cognizant of all current events and happenings as they relate to the Church and its people. He promised that the meetings would be made more interesting and that all questions affecting Catholic interests would be taken up and fully and intelligently discussed. In order also that proper impetus might be given any work before the Federation it was announced that the Executive Committee would meet for conference with the President on the third Thursday of each month.

The delegation representing Mackin, Y. M. I., accepted an invitation to arrange a programme and take charge of the April meeting, as will Trinity Council the month following, the Executive Committee to determine which acquires itself best. Each council includes in its membership well known lawyers, physicians, merchants, manufacturers and workmen, and as there is a spirited but friendly rivalry between the two the programmes will be awaited with no little interest and will draw a large attendance.

A number of communications were read and credentials for newly appointed delegates filed, after which copies of the Federation Bulletin were distributed. Magistrate P. T. Sullivan, who was late in arriving, was called upon and delivered an address that contained timely suggestions. Without noise or display the Federation, he said, moved along conservative lines and had accomplished much, and it was to be hoped the delegates would prove loyal in attending and thus make light the work they would have before them.

WITHOUT CREDENCE.

The Associated Press says the impression still exists among Catholic clergymen of Indianapolis that Rev. Father Chartrand will be made auxiliary to Right Rev. Bishop McCloskey, of this diocese. Here in Louisville the report is given no credence whatever. Our good Bishop, though not quite as young as many others, is still as active as any and has no trouble whatever in conducting the affairs of the diocese, which all concede to be one of the best managed in the country. In Kentucky it is the universal hope that Bishop McCloskey may reign for many years to come.

GREAT LOSS TO CHURCH.

The Catholic Church of the United States sustained a great loss by the death of Archbishop Montgomery, who died last Thursday in San Francisco, following an operation for appendicitis. He was recognized for his piety, learning and ability, and in him the Catholic fraternal orders had a wise counselor and true friend. Archbishop Montgomery was a native of Kentucky, being born in Daviess county, December 30, 1847. Cardinal Gibbons ordained him in Baltimore December 20, 1879, and he was consecrated Bishop and Coadjutor by Bishop Mori, of Los Angeles, April 8, 1894. On June 10, 1898, Bishop Montgomery succeeded Bishop Mori at Los Angeles, where he remained for seven years, and in October of 1903 was transferred to San Francisco as Coadjutor to Archbishop Riordan. He filled his higher office with signal success, and during the San Francisco catastrophe he won the love of people of all creeds and nationalities.

SHUN PUCK.

That alleged illustrated comic weekly, Puck, is out with the most bitter and rabid cartoon on the Catholic church we have ever seen. It displays France as a long suffering woman, angry from being milked by the clergy and hierarchy of the church, kicking over a milk bucket labeled "papal revenues" and the milker, His Holiness Pope Pius X. The clergy are represented as bees stinging the cow until goaded to desperation, it shows its resentment by kicking over the entire church, and the cartoon is labeled "A kick that was a long time coming."

This barber shop weekly has always been a notorious enemy of the church and its people. Even in the old A. P. A. strife it did its best to stir up ill feeling between the Catholics and their fellow-citizens, and it is high time that the Catholics of this country make some organized effort to fight this foe in their midst, as this latest attack is entirely unmerited and should not be let go by without some show of resentment on the part of Catholics and other fair-minded citizens. The Catholic press in the East, and especially in Puck's district, New York, should ask for an apology for this insult, and, if not granted one, should with the assistance of the Catholic societies and people in that section start a crusade for the abolition of this low weekly that attempts to prejudice and array one class of people against another by unfair and untruthful tactics. It is our honest opinion that the trade mark at the head of Puck's columns, entitled "What Fools These Mortals Are," must certainly apply to the purchasers, that is if they are looking for a comic paper, as the cheap wit and weak humor displayed therein are poor in comparison to other such publications.

FIGHTING DISEASE.

Writing upon the above subject, President Eliot, of Harvard University, says recent events have brought into strong light a new function of the medical profession which is sure to be amplified and made more effective in the near future—meaning the function of teaching the whole population how diseases are caused and communicated, and what are the corresponding means of prevention. The recent campaign against tuberculosis is a good illustration of this new function of the profession. To discharge it well requires, in medical men, the power of interesting exposition, with telling illustration and moving exhortation. Obviously the function calls for disinterestedness and public spirit on the part of the profession; but to this call it is certain that the profession will respond, and also calls for some new adjustments and new functions in medical men which should hereafter be

FATHER RYAN'S CHURCH.

Preliminary steps were taken this week by the congregation of St. Joseph's church of Winchester for the erection of a handsome new church building. The congregation there is not large in numbers, the Democrat says, but the members are strong in the faith, and under the energetic charge of the Rev. Father William B. Ryan they will no doubt erect an edifice that will be a credit to the Catholics and the city. Father Ryan is a zealous priest and well known all over the State, and people of all beliefs will encourage and aid him in his laudable undertaking.

FIELD HAS NO LIMIT.

The Kentucky Irish American, published weekly in Louisville, is one of our most welcome exchanges. Whilst its news field is limited, as its name indicates, it contains no trash nor mere sensationalism, and can be counted upon to ring true under the test of questions involving morality and right. It is a good paper and has a future before it. May bearing first prize and with color styling.

The installation of officers of Kadeski Company, Uniform Rank, C. K. of A., took place Wednesday evening at their armory on Eighth street, in the presence of the wives, sisters and sweethearts of the members of that splendid semi-military organization. Owing to the absence of Adj't Gen. Michael Reileher the installation ceremonies were directed by Col. Joseph P. McGinn, and were according to the new ritual just issued. Following these ceremonies refreshments were served, after which Capt. Archer lined up his men and drilled them for three-quarters of an hour, many of the movements eliciting applause from the spectators.

The company was complimented on all sides, Col. McGinn saying it was most certain to carry off some prize in the competitive drill next May when the Supreme body meets in Cincinnati. Others predicted that Company C would be a close competitor for first honors in that competition, in which companies from many States will be entered. The evening's entertainment closed with best wishes for the Knights and hopes that all would see them come back in May bearing first prize and with color styling.

KNIGHTS WERE PLEASED.

Capt. Gus Kane and the members of Company A, Uniform Rank, C. K. of A., are congratulating themselves on the social and financial success of their first military enclosure and reception, given at the company's quarters on Shelby street. In addition to the players at the eighty-nine tables there was a large audience present to witness the games. Captain C. was fully represented in uniform and many were present from New Albany and Jeffersonville. Forty-five prizes were awarded and all went away happy and pleased.

Thus speaks the Columbian Free with their entertainment.

John Hallagan, who drove President Roosevelt when he visited Louisville some years ago, is in a serious condition at St. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital, suffering from typhoid pneumonia. For several years he has been a valued member of the local fire department, driving the big No. 2 engine. Throughout the department there is a sincere hope for his recovery.

GIVEN SIXTH TERM.
Edward J. O'Brien, whose reputation as a tobacco buyer extends all over the world, was for the sixth consecutive time elected President of the Louisville Leaf Tobacco Exchange at the annual meeting of the Directors and stockholders held Monday afternoon. President O'Brien is one of the largest tobacco buyers in Louisville, representing the French Government in the local market besides many other trade interests. He grew up in the tobacco business and has been instrumental in making the Louisville tobacco inspection the best to be had. The vote for him was unanimous.

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing
the Past Week—General
News Notes.

Division 2 expects to add twelve members at the initiation tomorrow. Pittsburgh Hibernians have decided that they will not hold any St. Patrick's day parade this year.

Division 1 meets Tuesday night, when a report from the committee to secure permanent quarters will be looked for.

Division 1 of Jeffersonville has paid in full its national and State per capita tax, being one of the first in Indiana to do so.

Don't forget that you and your lady friends are invited to the complimentary entree to be given by Division 4 next Wednesday night.

The Hibernians of Lowell, Mass., will this year celebrate St. Patrick's day with a banquet instead of a parade. This plan has been adopted in many other cities.

Division 1 of Duluth installed its officers Wednesday night in Cattell Hall and then began the year's work with the initiation of a large class of candidates.

Young Jack Murphy made a fine record as Secretary of the Jeffersonville division. His minutes were always carefully written, never needing correction or amendment.

The work of the New Albany degree team is highly commended. Each member has studied his part well and the exemplification is said to be as nearly perfect as possible.

Dennis Gorman, formerly prominent in Jeffersonville Hibernian circles, but for several years past located at Fort Wayne, writes that he has just recovered from a five weeks' illness.

Every member who has proposed a candidate should see that he is presented for initiation tomorrow afternoon. The degree team expects to see a large class and should not be disappointed.

There was a grand midwinter reunion of Hibernians in the old City Hall at Pittsburgh last Saturday night, when Prof. Monaghan, of Washington, delivered his lecture on "Irish Nationality."

Division 1 of Stillwater, Minn., and the Ladies' Auxiliary had a joint installation of officers, when an excellent programme was rendered, followed by a delicious meal served by the ladies.

National President Cummings was given a great reception at Nashua, N. H., over 500 members being present at the meeting. Upon all sides it was declared that the visit of President Cummings will be of immense service to the order.

About 100 members attended the installation held at Skeneetons Falls and enjoyed the social session that followed. A large number attended the banquet held by Division 10 at Marcellus in honor of State President Dorsey, New York's State President.

Division 3 of Manchester, N. H., installed officers and initiated eight members at its last meeting. Rev. Father Cremmer, the State Chaplain, is much interested in the success of this division, which was organized in his parish. When the new St. Patrick's church hall is completed the members will meet there.

CHANGES RUMORED.

Control of the Irish Police to
Be Placed Under Irish Authority.

A correspondent of the Cork Examiner, on the authority of one who holds one of the most exalted positions in the United Kingdom, and possesses almost unique opportunities of becoming acquainted in every respect with the intentions of the Government, states that in the forthcoming legislative and administrative changes it is contemplated to give the control of the Irish police to an Irish authority.

"As regards the working of the land act, the Government," the correspondent asserts, "will abolish the bonus and carry a compulsory measure for the transfer of the land from owner to occupier. That in furtherance of a forward policy, the personnel of the administration of the land act will undergo a change in one instance at least, where a gentleman whose offices and sympathies are well known, but who is stated to lack the stamina to give effect to his views, will be promoted to another important post, and his place will be filled by one possessing the requisite 'back bone' to cooperate with the stronger personalities that permeate, and perhaps direct the present administration."

The correspondent gives an explanation of the resignation of Bryce from the Irish Chief Secretariate the want of harmony that existed between himself and Sir Anthony MacDonnell.

CASPER'S TOAST.

Dr. Michael Casper returned the first of the week from the institution of another council of the Knights of Columbus last Sunday. At the banquet in the evening Dr. Casper responded to the toast, "The True Knight." There were over 200 visiting Knights present and the new council was started off with a charter membership of over fifty. The three degrees were given by teams from Owensboro and Evansville and Louis J. Herrman, the ceremonies lasting over six hours.

THEIR FIRST.

Kadeki Company, Uniform Rank of the C. K. of A., has out tickets announcing its first euchre and reception, which occurs Wednesday evening, February 6, at Masonic Temple Hall. It is the intention to make this an elaborate affair, and to this end an orchestra has been engaged to render a musical programme while the games are in progress. Beautiful prizes are promised and all rights have been reserved.

AFTER TRADE.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Buckingham offering for next week will consist of an all star cast, including an olio of headline acts, and two funny burlesques.

Keller, the magician, will appear at the Masonic next week with the usual matinee. His past successes in Louisville doubtless will be repeated. Upon his visit several features never seen here before will be presented.

The Hopkins management announces that a good vaudeville bill, embracing Cliffo & Co., Cameron and Flanagan, Ben Welsh, Waterbury Brothers and Tenny, the Oliveria Trio, Minnie Kaufmann and other artists, will be given all next week, with daily matinees. Several of these sets are said to be above the average of vaudeville material and will be seen here for the first time.

A play of the West will hold sway during the first half of next week at Macaulay's, "The Girl and the Bandit" coming for fair performances. The play is said to be in good shape and to be fully up to the standard of like plays that have proved so successful in New York the last two seasons. The remainder of the week, with Saturday matinees, will be taken up with the engagement of Maxine Elliott in "Her Great Match," a play by Clyde Fitch.

GENEROUS TO ORPHANS.

The Christmas collection taken for the orphans of the Indianapolis diocese at Holy Trinity church in New Albany reached the handsome sum of $315. This was one of the largest collections ever taken in any church in that diocese, and is a striking evidence of the liberality of Rev. Father Curran and the people of Holy Trinity parish.

SCHOOL OPENED.

The handsome new parochial school just completed by Rev. Father William Gansepolh for the children of St. Mary Magdalene's parish was solemnly blessed last Sunday. The building is nicely equipped, well furnished and commodious, and already the attendance of pupils is quite large. Many compliments are being paid the Rev. Father Gansepolh for his achievements since taking charge of that church.

MACMANUS LECTURES.

Seumas MacManus, the noted Gaelic lecturer and writer, will be in the Northwest next week, having engagements at Minneapolis, St. Paul, Milwaukee and Chicago, and on Saturday will speak twice to the students at Notre Dame University at Notre Dame, Ind. During February his route lies through Utah and Montana to the Pacific coast, and from San Francisco to Texas and Louisiana, reaching Ohio the first part of March.

CONCERT AND BANQUET.

The annual concert and banquet of the Concordia Singing Society at Leiderzanz Hall on Monday night was a most delightful affair, being enjoyed by an audience of over 800 people. The musical programme, arranged by Prof. Carl Schutte and Victor Winter and divided into two parts, was of an especially high quality. Daniel was also a feature in which hundreds took part. All were fully repaid for braving the inclement weather to attend.

HONORS FOR CHIEFS.

The fifteen Grand Army posts of Cincinnati have called a union meeting for Thursday, January 31, in honor of the Most Rev. Archbishop John Ireland, the distinguished head of the St. Paul archdiocese, and R. B. Brown. The former is National Chaplain and the former National Commander of the Grand Army of the Republic.

GOING TO LEXINGTON.

P. H. Calahan will head a delegation from the local council of the Knights of Columbus to go Lexington tomorrow to attend the initiation of Bluegrass Council, of that place. Some of the visitors will return tomorrow evening while others will wait over until Monday morning.

THE ANGELUS BELL.

For the first time, it is said, in the history of New York, beginning the day after Christmas, the chimes of the angelus bell are now heard on busy Broadway, the Bowery, and throughout the vast network of streets which lie between, comprising Little Italy. Morning, noon and night rings out its summons to devotion, and while some in the hurry and bustle of the city's throng may listen and wonder, others recognizing the call, stop to repeat the three Ave Maries or to cross themselves.

At Ballytrain many applications are being made for laborers' cottages.

Death has been very busy in and about Ballyborough about Christmas week. Not less than fifteen deaths have taken place inside that time.

A large number of emigrants are preparing to leave the vicinity of Ballytrain in the early part of the present year. No county in Ireland suffered more from emigration than Monaghan, still the drain goes on.

On Sunday evening a woman named Bridget Monaghan, of Ballyborough, left her house to procure milk for supper. When in the middle of Main street she became suddenly ill and fell to the ground, and when assistance arrived was found to be quite dead.

The plowing match, formulated by the Agricultural and Industrial Society, will be held on Monday, January 21, at Castlereagh. There is a class for swing plows and one for chaff plows, and three substantial prizes are offered in each class, to which several specials will be added.

At the opening of the Castlereagh Quarter Sessions his Honor Judge Craig was presented by Sheriff Swan with a pair of white gloves, as an emblem of the peaceful state of that division of County Monaghan. His Honor returned thanks, and expressed himself satisfied with that condition of affairs.

The South Monaghan Executive of the United Irish League has arranged for a meeting of large proportions at Ballytrain on January 20, in the interest of the evicted tenants. Every part of the County Monaghan, as well as the neighboring counties of Armagh, Louth and Cavan, will send delegations.

The collections in aid of the Parliamentary fund at Ballytrain, although not what it should be, was very good notwithstanding that those who benefited most gave least. The local division of the A. O. I. co-operated with the U. I. L. in making it a success, which should bear fruit very little room for fault finding in future.

VERY BUSY

Were Ladies of the Auxiliary Last Wednesday Night.

At an interesting meeting of Division 1 of the Ladies Auxiliary held Wednesday night at their hall, Seventeenth and Main, the members transacted an unusual amount of business. Miss Elizabeth King presided, Miss Mary Sheridan being absent from the city attending the sessions of the Supreme officers of the Catholic Knights and Ladies of America. That the work of increasing the membership continues was evidenced by the filing of two applications and the obligation of two new members.

The Literary Committee reported that Schreiber's Hall had been secured for the encore and dance to be given February 5, and that they were giving all their time to arrangements that will insure its success. Numerous and handsome prizes will be awarded during the evening which will be made the occasion of a great social gathering. The ladies of this division are very energetic and business-like in their methods, in consequence of which they have a splendid treasury, and it has been hinted that they would not be averse to the purchase of a building of their own.

Members were pained to learn of the illness of Miss Josie Beardon. Tuesday night the Auditing Committee, composed of Misses Elizabeth King, Margaret Sullivan, Sadie Jordan, Mrs. Dora McGinley and Rose Kelly, went over the books and found them all correct. They were then entertained in a most hospitable manner by Mrs. Dan Dougherty as the home.

Tickets for the encore and dance are now out and may be obtained from Mrs. Dan J. Dougherty, 1231 West Market street.

MEMPHIS.

Happenings in the Ranks of the Young Men's Institute.

The recently held election of the Young Men's Institute at Memphis, Tenn., resulted in the following roster for the new year: President—George A. Lawo; First Vice President—F. T. Fransoli; Second Vice President—M. Cartigan; Treasurer—J. L. Glanck, Recording Secretary—A. V. R. Kleinher, Financial Secretary—C. W. Wallace, Jr.; Marshal—Sentinel, W. L. Fay; Outside Sentinel, E. A. Clarke; Executive Committee, John E. Colburn, W. E. Sullivan, J. L. Keating, Jr.

An entertainment committee was appointed to serve on the evening of January 25, when the Y. M. I. are to give a brilliant fete. This committee is composed of Thomas Smyth, J. W. Glankler, Charles Baker, C. W. Wallace, Jr., Reno, F. T. Fransoli, Solvatter and D. T. Harrington. A dramatic committee was also named to get up amateur theatricals, presenting the same in the Y. M. I. Hall on Washington avenue.

The Catholic Journal says an effort is being made to bring Archbishop Ireland there. It is expected that the attempt will result in the learned prelate visiting Memphis in the near future. The Y. M. I. have a large and a growing membership, and judging from the present outlook, will be the banner branch in the South.

FORTY HOURS.

The Forty Hours' devotions will begin in St. Joseph's church at the high mass tomorrow morning and will continue until Tuesday. Priests of the city will assist the pastor, as it is expected the services will be largely attended.

CATHOLIC WOMAN'S CLUB.

All arrangements have been perfect and prizes secured for the annual euchre given under the auspices of the Catholic Woman's Club, which takes place at the club house on the 25th of January.

COFFEE SOCIAL EUCHRE.

The ladies of St. Leo's church at Highland Park are preparing a coffee social and euchre for their friends that gives promise of much enjoyment. It will take place on Thursday, January 31, afternoon and evening, the proceeds going to help this new and most worthy parish. That there may be plenty of room and no confusion the games are scheduled to be played in the school house, while the coffee and other refreshments will be served in the parochial residence adjoining. All charitably inclined people are cordially invited, as by their presence they will greatly encourage Father Fitzgerald and the people of St. Leo's in the great work they are pushing forward.

ABLE TO BE OUT.

Dr. Harry J. Couchman, the Fourth-avenue dentist, is now able to be out after five weeks' illness of typhoid fever and expects to resume his practice this coming week at his office in the Bacon building. The Doctor's many friends will be glad to have his genial smile once more in their midst.
